

RESORT
SPA

Piaski is at the very end of the Polish part of the Vistula Spit
Looking at the map it is west of the border, north of the Sun.

Paraphrasing the title of a short story, one can say that Piaski is a place where one wants to be, where one is heading. Using this symbolic rhetoric further, one can assume that where everything ends, everything also begins.

This is where the directions of the FOUR WINDS converge and diverge from here.
